SPEAK UP FOR ISRAEL

Everyone can be an advocate for Israel. Learn how to speak on Israel's behalf and counter claims made against Israel with three practical and effective communication tools.

With Special Guest Speaker

PROFESSOR EUGENE KONTOROVICH

"Say It Enough, It Still Isn't True: Illegal Occupation, Settlements, Apartheid"

Professor Kontorovich teaches at Northwestern University School of Law, where he specializes in constitutional and international law. This year he is a member of the Institute for Advanced Study, in the School of Social Sciences. A leading expert on international criminal law and maritime piracy, he has been called on to advise lawyers in historic piracy trials around the world. At the Institute, he is working on a book on international law for Harvard University Press. He also regularly teaches law at Tel Aviv University.

Professor Kontorovich's writings on Israel have appeared in the Wall Street Journal, Jerusalem Post, and numerous other publications. He is an internationally sought-after lecturer, and speaks frequently about the legal and historical aspects of the Israeli-Arab conflict at synagogues and to student groups at dozens of universities across the country, as well as the Israeli Military Advocate General's International Law Department, CAMERA, the AJC, and the Decalogue Society.
